Nothing in this constitution shall prevent the Board of Trustees of said institution from having full power to receive, hold, control, buy, sell, mortgage, and deed real and personal property as said Board of Trustees shall see fit.

Article II

A. The government of the corporation shall be vested in a Board of Trustees who shall have the general supervision, control, and the power to direct all the affairs of the institution. Trustees Emeriti will be seated at the meetings of the Board with voice but not vote. In addition, a Trustee Emerita/Emeritus may be seated at any Committee meeting of the Board with voting privileges.
