CARTHAGE COLLEGE CHILDREN’S BOOK SALE SCHEDULED FOR APRIL 4

KENOSHA, Wis. — The Carthage College Center for Children’s Literature will hold a spring book sale from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, April 4th, in the Hedberg Library at Carthage, 2001 Alford Park Drive.

The sale will feature children’s and young adult books. Hardcover books cost $3 each, and paperbacks cost $1 each, and some free books will be available too.

The Center for Children’s Literature features a nationally recognized collection of more than 25,000 titles meant to instill a love of reading in children. The center also organizes workshops, reading programs, and lectures from well-known authors.

All books being sold are either directly from the publishers or were once a part of Carthage’s collection of books. Proceeds from the sale allow Carthage to expand its collection and to fund author visits to the campus.

For more information, contact Marilyn Ward at 262-551-5875 or mward@carthage.edu.

ABOUT CARTHAGE

Located on the shore of Lake Michigan in the thriving Chicago-Milwaukee corridor, Carthage College enrolls 2,800 undergraduate and graduate students. Named a Best Midwestern College by the Princeton Review and a Most Innovative School by U.S. News & World Report, Carthage has been a top producer in the nation of Fulbright U.S. Students for four years running. Carthage is ranked No. 3 in the country among baccalaureate institutions for student participation in short-term study abroad. New this year, the College has launched The Aspire Program™, a comprehensive four-year career development program for all students. The Aspire Program builds on Carthage’s strong history of providing students with the skills they need to succeed after college.
